Remarks

Tucked away in a peaceful corner of Richmond Hill, 66 Harvey Drive offers a lifestyle that blends coastal adventure with the freedom to truly live the way you want. Mornings might begin with coffee on the porch before heading out for a walk through the towering oaks and scenic trails of Fort McAllister State Park, while afternoons could find you launching the boat for an evening cruise from Fort McAllister Marina or the public boat ramp just minutes away.

Back at home, the completely renovated residence welcomes you with fresh, updated spaces designed for comfortable everyday living. But the lifestyle here extends well beyond the house itself. Off the four-car carport, a 321+ square foot auxiliary building currently serves as a recreation room—perfect for game nights, hobbies, a workshop, or a creative studio. The space also has the potential, with further construction, to be a detached in-law suite.

Step outside and you'll discover something increasingly rare: NO HOA. With no restrictive covenants, this property allows you to shape your land around your life. The new fencing and large double gate make it easy to bring in your boat after a day on the water, park an RV for the weekend, store work equipment, or
